This family includes eight-year-old Suzy, 11-year-old Jon, and 14-year-old Helen. Their single father became physically disabled when he was hit by a delivery truck as a child. The father has tried to work, but his physical limitations have made it impossible to obtain a full-time job. The father works as many odd jobs as he can and tries hard to maintain a stable life for his children. He is able to maintain a home and necessities for his children, but there is very little money for the holidays.
